

Suzanne Georgette Marie Lewalski

August 14, 1936 - June 6, 2023

Suzanne Georgette Marie Lewalski went to be with the Lord on June 6, 2023 at the age of 86 with her family by her side in San Antonio, Texas.

She was born and raised in Normandy, France. As a young child, she worked on her parent's farm and survived polio and World War II. These hardships and the love for her family gave her the determination and strength to fight life's challenges.

Suzanne met the love of her life, Edwin Lewalski, while he was stationed with the U.S. Air Force in France. It was love at first sight, and they began their lives together – married for almost 55 years.

Suzanne and Edwin pursued their culinary passion as chefs by opening a Mexican restaurant, Casa Luis, in Poteet, Texas, and a French restaurant, La Normandie, in Castroville, Texas. After 24 successful years in the restaurant business, they retired to enjoy their time with family and friends.

Suzanne was as lively as one could be. Most Sunday afternoons in her home consisted of family, a homecooked three -to -five course meal, records playing, singing, and plenty of Veuve Clicquot and red wine to go around.

Suzanne was preceded in death by her loving husband Edwin Lewalski; parents, Raymond Louis Albert Guittard and Celine Louise Marie Lebon; son, Alain Lewalski; son-in-law, Jacques Malfilatre; daughter-in-law, Donna Lewalski, and all eight of her siblings.

She is survived by six of her children: Joëlle Malfilatre, Rémi Guittard (Nadine Guittard), Jean-François Lewalski (Christy Lewalski), Solange Lewalski (Mary Bishop), Barbara Lewalski (Joseph Swafford), and Edwin Lewalski III (Melissa Lewalski), and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She was a wonderful mother, grandmother, great grandmother and foster parent. Her life revolved around her children, and she will be greatly missed.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, June 17, 2023 at Mission Burial Park North - Funeral Chapels and Cemetery Dominion. Viewing hours are from 10:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. followed by a ceremony and graveside services.
