“ Miss Sydney, a beautiful young lady, she contributed much to several projects at Alkek Library and I will always appreciate the work she performed as well as her kindness. I still have an owl mug she left behind. I've thought about her often each time I see it and wondered how she was doing. Bless her heart and my deepest sympathies to her family and friends. Such a young soul to be called to Heaven. Rest In Peace.

“ Sydney came over our house a few times to visit Emily with Annelse . So I only met her a few times but her openness and genuineness impressed me. Here are 3 things to remember per Thich Nhat Hanh

She lived a good life

We spent quality time together

She knew she was loved

My condolences to her family and the many people who loved her

“ My best memories from high school took place in room 205 alongside sweet Sydney Doolittle and our yearbook family. Thanks Doo for constantly making me laugh, for not being afraid to speak your mind and the honest truth, and for taking the blame when we'd get into trouble. I hope you know how loved you are, and that you know I will never ever forget you. I am so glad I was able to be there for you yesterday. You're on my mind constantly, and I miss you so much. WE LOVE YOU.

“ I just remembered that video where Doolittle said "it's gon' rain" and we all lost it. Some of my favorite high school memories are just the funny sarcastic things she would say under her breath. She was so smart, kind, and funny. Rest in peace. 🍀

“ Doo, Annie, and I would always ride together to away basketball games with Mr. or Mrs. Shipley and those car rides were always full of laughter. We would always give each other a silent head nod and smile in the halls of incarnate word as we walked passed each other or would laugh about old times in middle school in open lab in Q's room. I'll miss her so much. Rest easy, Doo-More ❤️

“ Sydney was the best teammate anyone could ask for! she always made me feel welcomed and a part of something bigger than just the freshman basketball team. She truly knew how to make people laugh and fill them with joy. She wasn't one to judge or discourage, she was tough and she loved sinking 3's. Whenever she would bust out a 3 and make it the whole bench would go crazy! This news saddens my heart so much. Ms. Doolittle if you need ANYTHING don't hesitate to message me over Facebook or contact me. my phone number is 201-254-7252. Your family is and will continue to be in my thoughts and prayers, I am sorry that I could not make it to the services.

“ Doo used to need rides home from school almost every day, and I knew that she wanted me to take her home, but she'd go the whole day waiting to ask me. She never came up with any schedule or warning for when she needed rides, but towards the end of the day, just before last bell, she'd just look at me and smirk. I wouldn't even ask - I'd just say yes I'll take you home today and smirk back at her. I always joked like it was this huge burden and she was so lucky to have me as a ride, but the truth was she was so fun and made me so happy that I never cared. I would've driven much farther just to have her in the passenger seat cracking me up all the way home. Doo was a light in my life then and will always be.

*Syd, sydney doo. You know I love you.
You smell like poo poo.
Sydney Doo, I love you!*

She'd ask me to sing it again just to aggravate me. I love you Syd.

“ She was one of the toughest girls I had for my first A girls team at Blessed. Her Chapa, Ship were the heart and soul of that team, she always refused to give in the other teams. Whenever we were down she would hit a big 3 or make the big stop. I would love it when a girl would get a break away lay up, Do would chase her down and foul them so hard they wouldn't get the shot up and make the other teams think twice about a wide open layup. Gonna miss you my lady bulldog.

“ Sydney and Annelise were so similar in appearance when they were younger that several times I mixed them up. One time when Sydney was coming downstairs after spending the night I said "good morning, punkin'. Did you sleep well?" Sydney turned and looked at me with a big grin and said, "good morning to you, punkin! Yes, I slept very well!" I must have turned 16 shades of red!

Since that day I have always called her "my little punkin" and vice-versa. Love you, Sydney. I will miss my little punkin.

Eternal rest, grant unto her O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon her.

May she rest in peace. Amen.
