“ I am sorry about the loss of your loved one. Words cannot describe feelings in a time like this. Many have found comfort in the Bible's promises of seeing our past loved ones again such as at John verses 28 and 29. Take care of yourselves and keep memorie

“ To all the family,

We will remember the faith and the courage of Sylvia. And we will think of you in this time. She was loved by all of us and most of all, she was loved by the One she lived her life to serve. May God bless you all.

“ Although I did not know or maybe just don't remember Sylvia, she would be an aunt-in-law ?. My dad, Tom O. Moore, was one of Edna Blalock's brothers. My sympathy to this very extended family.
