

Sylvia A. Aguilar

December 14, 1945 - July 2, 2015

The beloved Sylvia A. Aguilar born on December 14, 1945 went to the Lord on Thursday, July 2, 2015.

She was born and raised in San Antonio and graduated from Christ the King in 1960 and Our Lady of the Lake High School in 1964. She was a product of the West Side and met her future husband when they were both Christ the King students and fellow neighborhood kids.

Sylvia was one of the first 50 employees of the Audie Murphy Memorial V.A. Hospita, where she made many good friends. She retired after 34 years of Civil Service to help take care of her husband Ramiro P. Aguilar, who was suffering from terminal cancer and passed away in 2003.

Sylvia is also preceded in death by her parents, Samuel and Josephine de la Garza Felix and her beloved dog Chloe.

She is survived by her daughter, Diane E. Aguilar and numerous extended family members.
