

Sylvia M. Budraitis

March 25, 1945 - April 4, 2025

Sylvia M. Flores Budraitis joined her Lord on April 4, 2025 in San Antonio, Texas. She was born on March 25, 1945 in San Antonio. Mrs. Budraitis was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Robert Budraitis; and her brother, Ralph Flores. She is survived by her son, Alan Budraitis (Sara); sisters, Rosie Trevino (Joe), Dee De La Torre; grandchildren, Vivian and Benjamin Budraitis. Sylvia was an avid quilter, had a love for making desserts, and a love for music and dancing. Sylvia always had an entrepreneurial spirit, and a very strong work ethic, that always had a way of inspiring people to reach for the stars and believe in themselves. What mattered most to Sylvia was her family. Whether it was spending holidays or birthdays together, or just a night out, it was always a joyous event. She loved her son and her nieces, and couldn't wait to be a grandmother. Sylvia was able to celebrate her 80th birthday surrounded by her family, before reuniting with her husband on what would have been his 79th birthday.

Sylvia spent her last few years battling with dementia and Alzheimer's disease. We therefore ask that in lieu of flowers, please make donations to the Alzheimer's Association. A memorial fund has been created in her honor and can be found at:

“ My cousin Sylvia was smart, beautiful, and driven. She accomplished so many things in her life. As her younger cousin, I always looked up to her with great pride. May she rest in peace surrounded by loved ones who have gone before her. Much love, Sandra Long

“ Sylvia was more like a Mother to me than a Sister. Our Mother died when I was two years and Sylvia started working at 12 yrs old to help support me and our other sister. Rest in peace my Angel, look for me in Heaven when I die. Loving you until my last breath. Your Sister Dee
