

Sylvia A. Casablanca

November 20, 1954 - December 18, 2025

Sylvia A. Casablanca passed away on December 18, 2025, in San Antonio, Texas. She was born on November 20, 1954, in El Paso, Texas, to Pedro and Delia Casablanca. Sylvia was a woman of quiet strength, compassion and faith. She wasn't a person who needed attention yet her warm presence was always felt. She valued her independence and cherished her time alone, yet those around her always felt comforted and loved. Sylvia was always quick to give and slow to anger, offering patience, kindness, and understanding. Life wasn't always easy for her, but she persevered with faith and family. Her love was steady, her care sincere, and her heart overwhelmingly generous. To know Sylvia was a blessing, but to be loved by her was truly a gift. She found joy in life's simple comforts such as family, a good book, or the companionship of her dogs. She understood that life is defined not by its beginning or its end, but by the love and meaning found in between. The simpleness of life brought her peace and joy: a gentle rhythm she carried through her life. Sylvia was loved deeply, and she loved deeply in return. Her memory will live on through the lives she touched and the love she shared so freely. Though she is no longer with us, her spirit remains quiet, steady, and full of grace. She was preceded in death by her father, Pedro Casablanca, and her brothers, Charles and David Casablanca, and her fierce and loyal companion Maya. Sylvia is survived by her mother, Delia Casablanca; her daughter, Adriana Casablanca (Charlie Alcoser); her son, Brandon Casablanca; her sister, Debra Delgado (Manuel); her beloved grandchildren, Raven and Emanuel Rea; and many nieces and nephews who were blessed by her love.<sup>2</sup> Timothy 4:7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

“ Samantha just wanted to tell you that your Aunt Sylvia was such a beautiful person, not just her beauty but her SOUL. She LOVED your Grandma so much that she was willing to take care of her even though she wasn't well herself. Know this Samantha that I know your heart aches for her BUT your AUNT SYLVIA is NOW in THE GLORY (GOD'S MIGHTY PRESENCE) OF OUR KING JESUS. SHE IS WALKING THE STREETS OF GOLD WITH JESUS AND YOUR DAD!!! HALLELUJAH!!! PRAISE GOD!!! She will be MISSED.
