

Sylvia A. Duarte

March 23, 1935 - January 1, 2023

Sylvia went to be with the Lord on January 1, 2023, in San Antonio, Texas. She was born on March 23, 1935, in San Antonio, Texas to Juan and Margarita Sanchez. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband of 70 years Esteban Duarte and by her loving son, Dennis Duarte ; sister Yolanda Martinez; brothers Oscar Sanchez and John Sanchez. She is survived by her loving daughters Doris Villanueva, Debbie Duarte, Delilah Trevino (Charlie); grandchildren Rochelle Villanueva, Christopher Villanueva, Monica Trevino, Adam Trevino, David Trevino; great- grandchildren Faith Resendez, Abryanna Lerma, Sofya Lerma and numerous nieces and nephews.

At an early age she had a love for dancing. Til the very end she enjoyed music and continued her moves. Most of her life she was a stay home mom which allowed her to volunteer at her children's' schools, her church and at the State Chest hospital. When she worked, she brought energy and enthusiasm to any position she held. She also loved caring for her grandchildren whenever she could. She lived for today and it showed with everything she shared with them from providing support and cheering them on to just enjoying life with them.

In lieu of flowers consider a donation to St Margaret Mary church or the Alzheimer's Association.

She was loved by all and will truly be missed.

The family would also like thank the staff of VITAS hospice and Harbor Valley for all their support.

“ I always remember Sylvia and Steve getting together with my parents and of course, my parents always brought my sisters and I to the gatherings. It was a lot of late nights, lots of laughter. Sylvia always called Steve her muneco (doll). She was a wonderful storyteller and I will miss her vivacity and joy of life. I know she's with her Steve dancing the night away.

“ Sylvia was a dear friend. I first met her when she starting working at the law firm where I was working. We became good friends. She was very fond of my son Brian. She called him her little boy (even when he was 6'4"). When Sylvia met Brian's fiancée, Roxanne she told her " be good to Brian or you will answer to me." She will be missed.
