

Sylvia Moser

April 8, 1927 - October 1, 2018

Sylvia Moser was born to Lillie and George McGraw on April 8th, 1927 in Bexar Country, Texas. She had five brothers and six sister whom she cared deeply for. At the age of 11, her mother Lillie passed away and for a time moved between siblings until she moved in with her sister Louise in Kansas City, Missouri. At the age of 17, she married her first husband, Frank Tierney, and together they had three children, Joe, Deborah, and Larry. After the marriage failed, she relocated back to San Antonio Texas with her children and married James Moser Jr, and had one daughter together, Susie. From there, Sylvia worked at the Northside Independent School district for several years until she retired in the 80's. In her spare time, Sylvia loved traveling to places such as the Big Bend or taking family trips down to Port Aransas. Sylvia had a passion for cooking, gardening, quilting, and enjoyed her time outdoors. She had nine grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren. James and Sylvia had a long-lasting marriage of 57 years until his passing in 2016.
