“ Sylvia has had a smile and warm greeting for all. We will miss her at our Garcia reunions and luncheons. Since we lived next door to her, Carlos, Aunt Cata and Honey, she was my big sister. I am sure she had lots of family waiting to welcome her home in heaven, I will cherish the times we shared . God bless her and may she RSIP. Much love, cousins Irene & Nora & families

“ Sylvia and I met when I started 5th grade at Ira Odgen Elem school. We continued a lasting friendship throughout the years. Sylvia was the truest, sweetest, friend. I will miss her so very much. When the sun says goodbye to earth, it leaves a beautiful sunset as a gift. When friends say goodbye to each other, they leave mementos of everlasting and priceless memories.

*So long my sweet friend, I know we shall soon see each other,
