“ Sylvia you will surely be missed! I will always cherish the moments we shared, the memories we made as we raised our kids on Barrett Place. The kids and I will always remember our Sunday morning breakfasts, our movie nights and all the things we did as a large group! May you rest in peace your suffering is over! The family and I are heartbroken for the whole family! Priscilla, Melissa and Lance please know you were everything to your mom and she loved you all very much! She is now the angel that will watch over you always!

“ Sylvia, so hard to see your passing into a life with our good Lord, your journey and battle has ended on earth but the memories of our times will forever be embedded in my mind and heart. It was good knowing you for almost 19 years and at one point working with you as well at WorldCom. We shared great times together. You will be missed. May you Forever Rest in God’s Everlasting Eternal Peace. Extended prayers and thoughts to family left behind to mourn such a great loss. My Deepest & Heartfelt Sympathies to all.
