“ Although we lost touch, I remember Tabatha dancing and singing in various Oak Hills Youth Group performances. A beautiful girl, she will be remembered and missed by so many.

“ I am so grateful to have been a part of tabby's life. I will always remember her voice and how I used to tell her she should be a singer (she used to tell me she had terrible stage fright). She was right next to me when my husband proposed to me. I will always cherish those moments. She was a wonderful person inside and out and her light will always shine from the heavens. I was blessed to have known her. My prayers go to her family and lyric.
