Dora is survived by her loving children, Yolanda A. Mendoza (Martin), Robert Salazar (Nettie-Ann); Lucinda Salazar. Gilbert Salazar, Charles Salazar (Jennifer), Georgia Mae Singleton (Daryll), Chris Salazar, Christina Salazar (Jose), Duran Salazar (Sarah), Alex Salazar, Rudy Salazar and Angel Salazar; brothers, Felix Soto and Roberto Soto and Rosita Soto Bosques; 33 grandchildren, Isabel, Sandra, Christina, Lucy, Jose, Dana, Fabian Joe, Jenny Marie, Stephanie Jean, Stephen Conrad, Carol Lynn, Stacy Marie, Clarissa Nicole, Faith, Grace, Nicolas, Isabela, Joe Bryan, Crystal Beatriz, Michael Luis, Konnor O'Neal, Mason O'Neal, Deandra Marie, Jose, Rene Azul, Valerie, Veronica, Rudy, Jessica Ann, John Anthony, Ricardo Antonio, Jose Antonio and Tiffany Soto; 28 great-grandchildren, and other extended family members, nieces and nephews.

Dora was born in Poteet, TX. She grew up in Poteet until she married her first husband and moved away. She spent most of her life in San Antonio living on the west side of town. Dora loved to play the penny and nickel slot machines at the Kikapoo Casino in Eagle Pass. She loved traveling with her children, and sister Elvira to casinos all over the US including Vegas, Oklahoma, and Louisiana. She loved visiting her brother Roberto, and Felix as often as she was able. Dora was a fantastic cook and loved to cook for her family. She hated being idle, so she kept herself busy cleaning and redecorating her home. She loved dancing especially cumbias and polkas while listening to Tejano music and oldies. She had a green thumb and loved her plants and flowers. Most days if weather permitted, she would sit outside and enjoy the sun. As a young adult she worked doing crop work and travelled all over the US as well as being a provider for the elderly. We would like to thank God for all of the time we were allowed to have our Mother. She was a blessing to us all. We will miss you Mom and can only hope to see you again one day.

“ Dear God, I cry for those of us left behind, for the lonely ones with hollows in our hearts. I ask You to comfort us, give peace, restore hope, and lavish us with love, family, and belonging. In the depths of loss, meet us with Yourself. I cry for the legacy this loved one leaves in death, for the ways the world has been made different by their presence, for the memories that become both more beautiful and more painful on this side of death. And I pray that the work You have accomplished in this remarkable life will grow deeper, wider, and stronger in the days to come, uninhibited by a weak opponent like death. - Gregory Cole
