Teressie A. Martinez

June 26, 1957 - November 22, 2014

Teressie A. Martinez, born on June 26, 1957, went to be with the Lord on November 22, 2014. In 1982, she married her husband Willie Martinez and they shared 32 wonderful years together. She passed peacefully at her home after her hard fought battle with pancreatic cancer. Teressie is survived by her husband, Willie and their three children, William and wife Jennifer and child Madyson, Valerie and husband Frank, Michael and wife Ashley and children Michael Jr., Marcus, and Matthew. She is also survived by her mother Gloria Almendarez, Sisters Terry Gomez, Bobby Christine Parra, and Brother Angel Jr Almendarez. She is preceded in death by her late father Angel Almendarez. She was loved by many including the entire Martinez family. Teressie was the most beautiful person inside and out. Her love and devotion to her entire family will live on forever. Her constant motivation through her battle with cancer was the joy and laughter her grandchildren brought her. Teressie made an impact on many people throughout her life, especially with the younger generation by motivating them to succeed. One of her greatest accomplishments was being awarded the Non-profit Organization of the year in Eagle Pass, TX in 2002, for creating the first club volleyball organization for young female athletes.
