“ Leaving her "imprint" is an understatement. Terri was a powerful Woman of God and her Faith radiated exceedingly and abundantly in many lives. She and I shared many Spiritual conversations that brought much laughter and cleansing tears. I am truly going to miss her. But, to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord and I know there's no place age would rather be.
My prayers and deepest condolences to her son and family.
God be with you all in your time of sorrow.

“ July 5, 1957 your dad and I had a beautiful baby girl your dad is the one that named you.
He named you after Terri Moore the actress. But you my sweetheart out shined her your life wasn't acting it was pure, a heart of gold do anything for any body.
I watched you grow from being a baby, youth, teenager, and becoming a beautiful lady
Then you married the love of your life (Darrell) and had a precious son (Bryan) which you raised to be a fine young man And to be respectful of others. The love Bryan has for you
Terri is deeper than the ocean. Bryan has always been very protective of you.
Your life on this earth was truly blessed for you are a child of God. The faith you had carried you through all things in life that you faced, good or bad. Terri you have giving us so many precious memories that we will forever cherish.
My heart is broken in a million but I know your where you are suppose to be.
I miss you so much!
I know you were trying to be happy and go on after Darrell because you had Bryan and Neyssa but your heart was broken. You were tired and God said...
It's Time so your Lord and Savior came and took you home Darrell was there waiting for you a long with Chopper, your Dad, Me Me, and Paw Paw. What a joyful reunion that must have been!
I know your in your Heavenly Home no pain, tears, injections Praise God!! I love you so much you will always be in my heart. I'm going to miss your precious smile and your sassy ways but that was my precious baby girl.
We are all looking forward to being together in time with you in heaven.
Terri you have your angel wings now so go dance and fly.
I LOVE YOU,

MOM

Our Sweet Terri, where do I begin. My heart is overjoyed for you, knowing you're with Darrell, just where you want to be. Our hearts are broken in a million pieces, and it's our fleshly selfishness that we mourn you. I'm forever grateful for the bond that the 4 of us had as, not only siblings but best friends. A true friend is when you can tell that person everything....the good, bad and the ugly. We all shared that. Those memories will carry us through this horrible emptiness we now feel. You are an inspiration to us all. So Godly. You've certainly earned your wings. Your work here was done Saturday. Faithful Servant you were and I'm sure you're ministering to all at your new Heavenly Home. I know these tears we're shedding will one day be tears of joy. I know you'd want that for us. Just let us have our time to grieve you. We certainly want to honor you and I want to thank you for allowing me to be your sister. I'm Blessed for it. We Love You. Now Dance with Darrell, continue the love story y'all were blessed to have again. Hug Dad. We will see you again our little mini.

To Mrs. Bandy, her siblings and her son, my deepest condolences on Terri's passing. I remember her from school. She was always so sweet and funny. I'm sure she is in the arms of her love Darrell right about now and feels safe with her daddy up in the heavens above watching over her family that she left behind. Peace and Prayers to you all.
