Terri was a wonderful and loving mother and wife. She was a nurse, an artist, a writer, and a teacher. She was one of the most beautiful and kind souls God graced this earth with. “Terri and I were destined to be best friends from the moment we met in 1982. The inside jokes and laughs we shared over the years are far too many to recount here, but she and her family knows how important these memories will always be in our lives. I'm heartbroken for John and Megan, but also for myself, and I know that sounds a bit selfish, but it's going to be a tough row to hoe without her. I loved her with every fiber in my being, and that will never change. May Our Lord hold her eternally in the palms of His hands...
