

Thelma M. Breit

September 20, 1920 - September 19, 2006

Thelma M. Breit of San Antonio passed away on September 19, 2006 one day before her 86th birthday. She was born in Veedersburg, Indiana and had resided in San Antonio for the last 63 years. She began her nurses training at M & S Hospital where she took a chance on a blind date who ultimately became her husband Harlan, to whom she was married to for 61 years. Thelma is remembered as a vibrant and amazingly strong woman who loved her family above everything else. She enjoyed sewing, reading and traveling. One of her favorite and most memorable trips was to Bermuda and of course, the occasional trip back home to Indiana. Thelma is survived by her loving husband Harlan, three daughters: Gene Freed and husband Clarence, Linda Brunson and husband James, Shelley Jones and husband John III; a son; Martin Breit and wife Nancy, 6 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

DM

“ Robbie was a wonderful woman. She will be missed greatly by her family and many friends. We enjoyed so much visiting with Harlan and Robbie at their home. The "Welcome" mat was always there along with a big hug. Harlan, our thoughts and prayers for you an

Dennis & Marlene - October 02, 2006 at 12:00 AM

ML

“ I am sorry for your loss. I have such fond memories of Robbie. She was great to be around. Although the years have gone by without being in touch, there are many memories of life growing up in our neighborhood. Your backyard and your family was centra

Marsha Reynolds Lambert - September 25, 2006 at 12:00 AM

MR

“ I was sad to hear about the death of Thelma Breit. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time. You have my deepest sympathy.

Michelle Ratchford - September 25, 2006 at 12:00 AM

DR

“ Harlan: our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. May God bless all of you. Wish I could give you a big hug. with love Mary Ellen and Dean

Dean & Mary Ellen Reynolds - September 24, 2006 at 12:00 AM