

Thelma L. McKay

October 10, 1907 - December 25, 2009

Thelma L. McKay went to be with the Lord on December 25, 2009 at the age of 102. She was born in Cotulla, Texas on October 10, 1907 to James and Nettie Hicks. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Lyford McKay in 1977, one daughter, one son, three sisters, and one brother. She was an active member of Baptist Temple for 32 years where she was a member of the Circle of Love Sunday School Class and the WMU. She was also a member of Bunco Babes. She is survived by her daughter, Nell Cheslyn, three granddaughters; Debbie Cheslyn and John Baker of Kingsbury, Texas, Dana and Bud Shannon of Leon Springs, Texas, and Diane and Reeves Moore of Bulverde, Texas, three great-grandchildren; Zachary Shannon, Mallory Moore, and Connolly Moore, along with five nieces and nephews, other loving family members and friends.

Tribute Wall

BD

“ *Nell,
I am so sorry to hear about your mom, and sorry we can't be in San Antonio for her service. We are keeping you and your family in our thoughts and prayers. Mom and Dad send their condolences too and want you to know they are thinking about all of*

Bobette Day-Estes - December 29, 2009 at 12:00 AM

GW

“ Thelma was an answer to prayer. She took care of my mother when my mother was in the final stages of pancreatic cancer. They were good for each other. Thelma was like Mom #2. I will miss sending her cards on special occasions and will miss just knowing sh

Glanell Wynne - December 28, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TW

“ I didn't really know Ms. Mckay but I am a friend of Nell Cheslyn and her family and I wish to offer my condolences in their time of sorrow. I have heard much about Ms. Mckay and the "Bunko Squad" from my mother and in some ways feel I know her. I know eve

Thomas R. Wright - December 27, 2009 at 12:00 AM