Theodore was born on November 8, 1929 in San Antonio, Texas. He graduated from Burbank High School in 1947 and married his love, Maria, in 1950. Theodore went on to work at Kelly Air Force Base, as a civil servant. He retired in 1990 after many years of service. Theodore was a great family man and loving father and grandfather. He loved to travel and experienced the US the only way he knew how, by driving through it. Taking road trips was one of his favorite pastimes. He enjoyed history and watching old Western movies. Theodore loved to tell stories about his time working in the fields as a young boy and working at the Gunter Hotel. His family and friends will always remember him as an avid lottery player who was hard to pull away from the slots when he was on a roll. He will be dearly missed by his family and all who were fortunate to have known him.

Theodore is preceded in death by his parents Espetacion Herrera and Maria de la Luz Herrera (Diaz), wife Maria Herrera, daughter Sylvia Herrera, grandson Eric Herrera, brothers Pablo and Jesus Herrera, and sister Margarita Escobar.

Theodore is survived by his children Theodore Herrera Jr (Grace), David Herrera (Lydia), Alice Brooks (Robert), and Margaret DuShane (Gary), twelve grandchildren, 33 great-grandchildren, 10 great-great grandchildren, brother David Herrera, and numerous nieces and nephews.
