

Thomas Edward Cowey Jr.

December 20, 1957 - February 16, 2025

Thomas Edward Cowey Jr. folded his final hand, and entered into eternal rest on Sunday, February 16, 2025, at the blessed age of 67. He was born on December 20, 1957, in San Antonio, TX to Thomas Edward Cowey Sr. and Margaret Cowey. He is reunited with his parents and his brother Jimmy. He is loved and will be greatly missed by his only daughter Heather Lynn Ramirez (Peter); grandchildren Peter Ramirez Jr., Christopher Ramirez, Benjamin Ramirez; siblings Roxann Cowey, Joyce Cowey, Lawrence Cowey (Sharon), Joe Cowey (Debbie), and Donald Cowey; nieces, nephews and extended family members and great friends. Tommy loved being a truck driver and would often tout, "If he could breathe, he could drive." He had many stories of the roads he traveled and the friends he made along the way. We often had a saying in our family that you couldn't go anywhere without Tommy knowing someone there, and if you did, they weren't strangers for long. He loved playing poker whenever he had the chance, but especially with family and friends. He made some great friends that became like family while playing poker. His love of Las Vegas was ever present in his life. He had deep Southside San Antonio roots, but loved to get out on his Harley and ride the highways. Heaven has gained a treasured soul. He will live forever in our hearts. His pride in his family, especially his grandsons, will live on here with us.
