“ Still hurt to know your gone. But he was very funny. In his own way. Kids loved him. I really wish I was able to say good bye. Can't believe I didn t read in between the lines of your last message to me and came by to see you. But I do thank God for putting you in our lives. You were a great man and helped many. And honestly you were ballsy and if you didn't like something you said it and I just loved sitting in your office and listening to your stories of anything. You just a good nack at retelling them and maki g you feel as you were there or to give me knowledge of the city. And I thank you for being g apart of me and my family life and sharing all the memories we got to make together.
