

Thomas Richard Hewitt, Sr.

October 11, 1937 - December 12, 2023

God called home Thomas R. Hewitt, Sr., age 86, of San Antonio, Texas on December 12, 2023.

Tom was born October 11, 1937 to Charles and Cora Hewitt. He was preceded in death by his first wife, Carolyn Jean Hewitt, his parents, and five brothers. He is survived by his wife, Mary Helen Hewitt, and his children, Tammy Dresner; Terri Wenzel and husband Richard; Tracy Merritt and husband Robert; Thomas R Hewitt Jr. and wife Christie; and Darrell Hewitt, and wife Jeannine; and stepsons Randy Rackley, and Mark Rackley, and a plethora of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Tom was a faithful servant of God and was devoted to his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. He was a kind, caring, level-headed, sensitive, and social man with a great sense of humor. Early in life, Tom loved bowling, dancing, playing poker, and collecting and wearing his unique hats. Later, while he still valued these hobbies, he also enjoyed reading (especially westerns and crime novels), word search puzzles, and watching the San Antonio Spurs and Dallas Cowboys.

Although Tom enjoyed his hobbies, it was also important that he spend as much time as possible with his family. He was a devoted and loving father who raised his children in the Christian faith. Next to his faith, he considered his family the most important part of his life. Tom entered his eternal rest surrounded by his family.

“ We miss you down here but I know you're enjoying those card games again, probably in the middle of one now! You've got your fanny pack full of cash and you're sporting one of your crazy, unique hats. Until we meet again. I Love You, Grandpa. ❤️
PS, I will stay loud forever just to honor you. 😊
