

Thomas J. Long

March 7, 1931 - July 30, 2004

Thomas Joe Long, born March 7, 1931 in Abilene, TX and entered into rest on July 30, 2004. He was 73. Tommy will be missed by his family and friends. He was employed by HEB Central Market on Broadway after working the family business, Long's Meat Market on West Ave., for 46 years. He is survived by wife, Lu Long; daughter and son-in-law, Amy Elizabeth and Jake Nelson La Coste, TX.; son, Phillip Andrew Long San Antonio; grandson, Dallas Nelson La Coste, TX. daughter and son-in-law, Shari Long-Jordan and Cecil Jordan San Antonio; son, Billy Long San Antonio; son and daughter-in-law, James and Kari Long Austin; brother and sister-in-law, Newman Jr. and Billie Jo Long. Funeral arrangements with Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. Visitation: Wednesday, August 4, 2004 at 6:00 to 9:00 P.M. Funeral Service: Thursday, August 5, 2004, 12:00 Noon. Interment at Mission Burial Park North Cemetery. Mission Park Funeral Chapels North.

Tribute Wall

JK

“ I REMEMBER TOMMY FROM THE DAYS YEARS AGO WHEN MY MOTHER LAUREL KAUPERT - NOW DECEASED AND I WOULD BUY MEAT FOR THE FAMILY. I THINK TOMMY TAUGHT MY MOTHER MOST OF THE RECIPES SHE USED FOR COOKING ROASTS, SOUPS AND STEWS.
YEARS LATER, I TOO BOUGHT STEAK

JEFF KAUPERT - August 05, 2004 at 12:00 AM

MB

“ I knew Tommy from Central Market, where I looked forward to talking with him on my breaks. He was always kind, friendly, and genuine, even in the way he helped customers try a new product in our meat department. He wasn't there just to "sell product"--h

Mary Beissner - August 04, 2004 at 12:00 AM