

Thomas W. McMorris

November 7, 1940 - May 9, 2024

Thomas W. McMorris was born November 7, 1940 in Oklahoma City, he passed away on May 9, 2024 after a brief illness. He is survived by his son, Ryan McMorris born in 1975, and preceded in death by his mother, Mrs. Helen Tillman McMorris, and his wife of 54 years, Carol Weingartner McMorris.

Tom was raised in Odessa, Texas where he graduated from high school in 1958. After high school, he attended Sul Ross and Odessa College before enlisting in the United States Marine Corps, serving from 1961 through 1965. After his service, he obtained a BBA at Texas Tech University where he met his future wife. They married in Marble Falls in 1967 and moved to the San Antonio area where he launched his long and successful banking career and Carol began hers as a public school teacher. Beginning as a Bank Examiner in San Antonio from 1967 to 1970, Tom went on to manage community banks as president in Universal City, Kerrville, Austin and San Antonio. He worked over 40 years in the industry, which included National Bancshares Corporation of Texas and Bank of America in San Antonio.

in 1973, he graduated from Southwestern Graduate School of Banking in Dallas, Texas, and in 1977 obtained his MBA from the University of Texas in San Antonio, Texas and Credit Risk Certification Risk Management Associate in 2008. His continued education and development made him a sought-after problem-solver for troubled banks.

Always eager for new achievements, Tom obtained a private pilots license, which was a source of some pride. Later in life, Tom learned to play classical guitar, which gave him joy and satisfaction.

“ What a lovely obituary! Tom was my neighbor. After his retirement, he and Carol had a date everyday at 4pm. They often watched a movie together. Being frugal, they bought one pair of hearing aids and each wore one.

Tom was a loving husband and father. I'm so sad he's gone and my heart goes out to Ryan.

Tom was Carol's honey, and it has been such a joy to get to know them during our mutual retirements. Happy to celebrate birthdays with apple pie and fried chicken with them, to laugh together, and to be swept up into Carol's enthusiasms and Tom's music. Rest in peace, you dear couple. Bless you both and your dear son Ryan. Hugs— Darlene Logan
