“ Gina, I am so sorry to read this. Your dad was great! I remember him taking us to the State Finals—any parent who can put up with three teenagers in a car for several hours (& at the game) is a true Prince! You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Mr. Prince was my first principal when I got my first teaching job in 1977. He was a very kind and hard working man. He loved his job, but loved his family more. God be with his family. Sincerely. Mary Horton

“ I met Mr. Prince when he hired me for my first teaching job at Adams Hill Elementary in 1979. Mr. Prince excelled at hiring good people. I made some lasting friendships at that school. When my family returned from Germany in 1988, he hired me a second time. I also had the privilege of going with him when he opened the Brauchle Elementary campus. I enjoyed my years teaching for Mr. Prince and the lasting friendships made over the years. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family.

“ Tom Prince was my first cousin, although I didn't know him well. My most vivid memory of him was when our Grandma Prince died. I was 12 or 14 and he was 7 years older than I. For the four or five days she was hospitalized, my sister, Tom and I were the only young people at Aunt Jewels house with little to do to pass the time. Tom was kind enough to play Monopoly with us for HOURS to keep us entertained. I have always appreciated his kindness to us then. My thoughts and prayers are with his loved ones.
