“ In first grade I met my new best friend “Tom-Tom” and we joined a little league baseball team together as the two youngest players. To this day, I am still an avid Houston Astros baseball fan from those early dreamy days in the outfield together. High school marching band, computer math class, etc. were all fun too. Many uplifting prayers for the family.

“ Tom and I were good friends in High School sharing many of the same classes and of course Band where we had so much fun. He was bright, funny and a sensitive soul. He was a positive force for good in the world and my deepest condolences to his family. May your days ahead be kind and gentle. May Peace reside as Tom would have wanted.

“ In learning of Tom’s passing this past Wednesday, the 21st I was quite devastated of losing my Best Friend from high school! Knowing Tommy and Beverly in my early years after meeting Tom in high school my Deepest Symphony goes out to you two, and of course Tish and Natalia who I was only fortunately able to meet once over the past 20 years!
