

Thomas Jack Skilling

September 16, 1940 - March 12, 2016

Thomas Jack Skilling, born September 16, 1940 in Hammond, Indiana passed away peacefully, surrounded by family the morning of March 12, 2016 at the age of 75. "Tom" as he was called served seven years in the United States Airforce and opened his own business following discharge from service. He leaves behind his wife of fifteen years Shirlene Skilling, along with his four children and a host of other relatives and friends.

A graveside service with military honors will take place at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery on Tuesday March 22, 2016 at 2:30 p.m. Friends are invited to sign the online guestbook at www.missionparks.com.