

Tibltse Girmaye Neguse

April 21, 1973 - May 24, 2021

Tibltse Girmaye Neguse was born in Addis Abeba, Ethiopia on April 21st, 1973 and went home to God on May 24th, 2021 in San Antonio, Texas at the age of 48 after a difficult fight with cancer.

Tibltse was known for her vibrant personality, kind heart and fierce resilience. She walked in true faith. Her smile, dotted with defined dimples, sparked light into any room and conversation. She loved life and her family deeply. Ever the fashionista, she was known for her stunning inner beauty and outer beauty. Tibltse is an eternal optimist, always seeing the world with kindness and love even in moments of difficulty. Her ability to see the best in others, love others and care deeply left a lasting impression. Her warmth and spirit are everlasting.

Tibltse came to the United States in pursuit of more opportunity. Despite many obstacles she persevered and became a registered nurse. She continued to advance her education in medicine until the very end of her life. As a frontline COVID-19 nurse, Tibltse served the country in the fight against the pandemic even as she fought her own illness. She rests as a hero.

Tibltse is also an incredible mother to two wonderful men, Joshua and Isaac. She loved her sons deeply and had the opportunity to see her grandchildren: Chance and Amir. Her love and teachings instilled in her children will be forever remembered.

She walked with courage and determination and will forever be in our hearts.

“ Tibiltse and I became friends since we're teens and grew up in the same neighborhood. We used to see each other when I used to live in Austin Texas. She was my bridesmaid and when she found out I was pregnant with a baby girl she requested to be my daughter's godmother. I'm deeply hurt with her passing. I wish I had one more chance to ask my sister how she was feeling. My dear Tibiltse may you rest in peace. My deepest condolences to her boys,, family and to everyone who were touched by her kind heart.
