

Tillie Michelle Hardy Naillon

July 7, 1957 - October 29, 2019

Tillie Michelle Hardy Naillon

On October 29, 2019, God gave the kindest, most beautiful soul on earth her heavenly wings. On that day, heaven gained a precious angel. In turn, we lost our beloved wife, mother, sister, aunt, great aunt and best friend. Tillie Michelle Hardy Naillon left this world at the age of 62. Although she left us far too soon, she is rejoicing in heaven with her son and parents whom she deeply missed. Tillie Naillon was born on July 7th, 1957 in Liberty, Texas. She leaves behind her husband, Ron Naillon, her son, Patrick Naillon, her stepson, Scott Naillon and wife, Lisa, her sister and best friend Sharon Maddox and husband, Mike Maddox, her godsister, Susan Minter, her sister in law, Sandra Naillon, her niece, Brittany Maddox, her nephews, Casey Maddox and wife Rebekah, Brady Maddox and wife Elisabeth, Dane Minter, her grandchildren Kaden Naillon and Shae Naillon, seven great nieces and nephews, Cade, Zayli, Zarek, Presley, Teagan, and Nicholas Maddox and Brooklyn Esquivel, her Aunts, Grace French, Bonnie Foster and Francis Yardley and numerous cousins. She is preceded in death by her loving parents, Earl and Betty Hardy and her beloved son Nicholas Naillon. Tillie was the kindest and most loving woman. She had an amazing heart and would go out of her way to help anyone in need. She was the voice of reason, the keeper of peace and a confidant to many. Tillie was an angel long before she left this earth. She spent most of her time in service to the ones she loved. Her family was everything to her. Tillie loved to cook. She spent countless hours in the kitchen cooking and making the most amazing meals and cakes. She went above and beyond to bring a smile to the faces of the many children in her life. Children were always drawn to Tillie. Her many great nieces and nephews adored her, as did everyone who crossed her path. You didn't have to know Tillie well to love her, she was a compassionate, caring and beautiful soul who will be missed beyond measure. Funeral Service will be held Friday, November 8, 2019, 1:00pm at The Church of Jesus Christ Latter-Day Saints, 13201 Forum Rd. Universal City, Texas with a with interment to follow at Mission Retama Cemetery.
