My deepest condolences. Tine was very kind-hearted. I bumped into her at the hospital about 15 years ago, when my dad was hospitalized. I knew her from Jr. and high school. We talked and laughed to catch up on our lives. Even though my father was not her patient. She visited him very day. This litte kindest meant the world him. He loved that she visited him. I will always keep a piece of her in my heart.

Tina you are going to be really missed. I'm already lost without you. Who am I going to call now? You were always there with the right words to say. We bonded in the mutual commonality of our health issues and encouraged and drew strength from one another when some days were a bit tough. You fought like the warrior I knew you always were. Rest easy now my beautiful cousin. Till I see you again. I love you girl. Gone but never ever forgotten 😭
