Tomasa Trevino Cantu was born on March 7, 1926 in Saspmaco, TX and passed away November 5, 2015 at the age of 89. Today, we honor our beloved mother, grandmother, and great grandmother, Tomasa Cantu. A strong, motivated woman with an amazing vision and work ethic. Raised in Monterrey, Mexico, Tomasa returned to the United States in 1974 and worked in a restaurant called Taco Hacienda. In 1975, she purchased the restaurant and was in business until 1981 until the building was sold and was forced to shut down. Tomasa returned to Mexico for a few months and returned in 1982 and opened La Puntada Café. Tomasa unofficially retired from the restaurant in 1991, but she could not stay away from the business so she continued to work part time as the cashier until 2013, when she officially retired. Today, Tomasa's legacy lives on as there are now 5 successfully operating restaurants amongst her children. She is survived by her loving children Ricardo Ruiz, Gabriel Ruiz, Raul Ruiz, Victor Ibieta, Mario Ibieta, Oscar Ibieta, Raquel Rodriguez, Martha Arevalo, Patricia Herrera, Alma Pacheco, Maria Lopez and Maricela Rodriguez; grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great great grandchildren.
