

Tommie Joe Morris Hill

July 15, 1933 - February 6, 2025

Tommie Joe Morris Hill passed away Feb 6, 2025 at age 91 after a short illness

Born July 15, 1933 in San Augustine, Texas to Thomas, J Morris and Lydia, Ruth Morris

She is preceded in death by her parents and her daughter Julia K Engler. She is survived by her son James Thomas Hill (Laurie), and a daughter Janice, Christine Winston. Her grandchildren, Christine van Well, (Francois) Bradley Adison Lynch, James Koy Hill (Lisa) Travis Alan Engler, and Michael Taylor Engler and 7 great grandchildren.

She grew up in San Antonio and modeled for Litchensteins department store. The family moved to Corpus Christi to run a family business, Ship Ahoy Restaurants for 32 years. She retired to the San Antonio area to care for her mom and remained until her passing. She was well liked and truly loved and will be forever missed and remembered for her fun loving spirit.

We are forever grateful to all those at Cibolo who took such great care of her and the nurses at Methodist Landmark for being so sweet and patient with her.

A service celebrating her life will be held at the Chambers Chapel located at the rear of Mission Burial Park North, 20900 IH 10 West at 2:00 P.M. on Saturday, February 22, 2025. Entombment will follow at the Mausoleum.

Tribute Wall

“ I loved Tommie Joe. She was quite a character with her humor and quirky personality. She was adventurous and always asking me when she was getting out of the nursing home! She was ready for her next adventure. Tommie Joe is now on her last and greatest adventure with her Lord and Savior! ”
