*It's hard to believe that in just 8 years all these people with Eloy and myself have passed on. The latest of these people being Aunt Tommie, who almost reached her 101 birthday, outliving all of them. They were a very hardy stock of people.
This photo marks the last time they were all together.*

“ What to say about my Tia Tommie? The last of her generation, fiercely independent, spoke her mind & called it like she saw it. As one doctor said, “She was made from good wood!”. Love you & God bless you. Richard & Lily

What a lovely picture and tribute Richard. I like the quote that "she was made of good wood."
