“ Tommy and I were the best of friend from Junior High School through High School. We played football together and baseball. I looked up to him. He was my hero. But he was easy going, the kid everyone gravitated to. He was a heck of an athlete. ALL-CITY qua

Knew Tommy in high school. Played baseball with him and considered him my good friend. Tommy and I were pitchers on the HHS team of 1960 finished second in state playoffs. Our only liss of the season. Lost track of him after high school. I graduated in 61 and him in 62. So sorry for his passing. I ran across the obituary quite a few years after his death. Thought I would reply anyway.

“ Tommy was a "one of a kind". I remember Tommy from our Sunday School days through our high school days. After leaving San Antonio, he came back occasionally to visit and he had not changed a bit. Still handsome, smart and funny. He will be missed.
