“ Tommy was my aunt but also my mom's best friend for all of my childhood; therefore, she helped raise me. We spent many a day going to Sears on Pleasanton Rd just for the drive and to go shopping. Tommy could fix the best cinnamon toast ever and the best salmon croquets too. She and Bob were my home away from home too. They let me live with them for a while when I needed it most. There's no way to measure how much I will miss my sweet aunt. I loved her dearly.
