Our Mom shared a table in the dining room for the last several years with her. Personally, I will miss her smile, kidding with Mrs. Ramirez another table partner. Since I live in Houston and visit my mom every two weeks she would love to tell me how she would travel to Houston when her daughter lived here. Oh, how she remembered the neighborhood. Church's Chicken, she would tell me how she loved the okra from there. Pan American restaurant and the restaurant across the street from Valero's. She Always looked forward to going to eat out. Beautiful lady that will be missed dearly. May the Perpetual Light shine upon her.
