

Tu Ngoc Minh Nguyen

June 10, 1975 - April 27, 2018

It is with great sadness that the family announces the sudden death of Nguyen Ngoc Minh Tu known to many as Tommy. He was born in Vietnam and lost his parents at the young age of eleven. Tommy will be forever remembered by his beloved wife Hoa Diem Tran (Cathy), their precious daughters Cathy Truc Nguyen (11) and Karen Thanh Nguyen (6), sister Nguyen Ngoc Minh Thy and brother Nguyen Ngoc Hoang Minh and numerous in-laws.

Tommy was an engineer in Vietnam. Tommy and Cathy married on July 21, 2002. Soon after Cathy went to America but Tommy couldn't go until 2005. Tommy loved his family very much and they all loved and adored him. He was a very devoted husband and such a loving daddy to his girls. He often spent time with his daughters taking them to movies as well as bike riding, bowling and swimming. They will forever treasure those memories with their beloved daddy.

Tommy attended San Antonio College and studied English and started a business working on air conditioners. Tommy later went to school and received his license to work in a nail salon. He loved this line of work and later bought the business Pro Nails in Boerne, Texas. He built a great reputation and all his customers loved him. He always put his customers first and built lasting relationships with many. Tommy will be missed tremendously by everyone who knew him.

“ Please accept our sincerest heartfelt condolences. We have been blessed with your friendship of over twenty years and we love and will miss Minh (Tommy) very much. We will especially miss his smile and our conversations. Minh was so excited and proud to share stories about Cathy and Karen's school accomplishments, and always took genuine interest in our children's lives. We are always here for you Sandy (Cathy). With much love, respect and affection, John , Irene, Renee, Jackie and Michael

“ My heart breaks for all the family, especially you, Cathy, and the girls. I am so very sorry. Tommy will be missed by so many. Everyone loved him. I've been a long time customer at Pro Nails and Tommy was always my favorite even though everyone there gives a great manicure and pedicure. Tommy was just such a delight to be around, so easy to get to know and had such a great sense of humor. He was a genuine good person and it showed in his beautiful smile. I always had so much respect for Tommy because I saw what a great daddy he was to your precious girls often spending quality time with them. They must know how very much he loved them. Days ahead will be hard because you two made such a good team. Won't be the same without Tommy there but I'm so thankful you have such a great family to help you run the business. I also see that you have so many customers that love you and will support you in the days ahead as you grieve this great loss. No doubt the days will be long and the nights very lonely. Call me any time you need to talk or to cry on my shoulder. I'm here for you.

Love you,
Susan Hampton
