VALDEMAR HAYES FURTH

Val was born in 1913 to Jay Irving and Bertha Mann Furth in Arlington, New Jersey, and spent his youth in New York City. He joined the U.S. Army in 1941, served as an officer in the South Pacific in World War II, and mustered out in 1945. Val met and married his lifetime sweetheart, Mary Dee Wilson, in 1943. They recently celebrated their 65th Wedding Anniversary. Val was a self employed contractor for many years, and later joined Frost Bank where he served in the Trust Department through 1978 when he retired to enjoy gardening, playing the ukulele, and writing. Val was preceded in death by his parents, and his brother, Jay. He is survived by his beloved wife, Mary Dee Furth and children, Kathie and Mallory Randle, Russell and Pam Furth, Diane Wilkins; granddaughter, Courtney Ireland, and great grandson, Bradley Ireland. He was beloved husband, father, and friend to all who knew him. He never met a stranger and loved to make people laugh. We will miss him greatly – his smiling face and that twinkle in his eye. In lieu of flowers, please send your donations to Trinity United Methodist Church San Antonio or your favorite charity.

“ Dear Family, I can't imagine the space you are feeling with the loss of Mr. Furth....I only knew him for a short while and I miss his clever sense of humor and his feistiness already....what a huge impact he must have made on so many people. We will miss
