Veleta Jean Mixon

September 13, 1934 – March 17, 2025

Veleta Jean Bolinger was born on September 13, 1934 in Richland Springs, TX. She passed peacefully at home on March 17, 2025 with her loved ones beside her. She is survived by her daughter Brenda Oldfield and son-in-law Dwayne, her granddaughter Layne Tisdell Martin, her sister Vera Ralston, many beloved nieces and nephews, and her best friend of 60 years, Audrey Keller. Veleta married Charles Mixon on September 17, 1955. They were members of St. Marks Methodist Church in San Antonio for 50 years. Veleta spent many years serving faithfully in different capacities. She was very close to her Women's Circle there. She loved reading, playing BUNCO, and spending time with her many friends and family members. She and Charles loved traveling and they visited Big Bend, New England, and the Texas coast. They took many trips with Vera and James Ralston and with Audrey and Carl Keller. Veleta was especially thrilled when she was able to care for her nephew Mark when he was a baby, and when her granddaughter Layne was born. They had a very special bond. In 2013, Charles and Veleta moved to Grand Prairie, TX to live with their daughter and son-in-law. They soon found another church home at Cedar Hill Methodist. Veleta quickly became a favorite among Brenda's friends and accompanied them on many adventures. Veleta was a gentle soul who never spoke an unkind word. She began and ended each day by reading her Bible. She will be dearly missed, but we know she is in the arms of the angels, at rest.
