“ Dear Lord,

Thank you for Aunt Velma's life and all the years we shared with her. Aunt Velma was a very special, kind and loving person who was always there for everyone. May there be a beautiful welcome for your in the home your are going to.

Let us all celebrate and not mourn for Aunt Velma is going back home to be with our Heavenly Father. Aunt Velma we are so very grateful for sharing your talents and wisdom with us along with your laughter and smiles.

We all feel like our entire lives have lost its meanings and we will overcome this sadness with joy, knowing Aunt Velma is in a better and safer place with God's Eternal Love.

Aunt Velma, I Bless You with Eternal Peace and until we meet again, God Bless You Always.

My condolences to the entire family.

“ I think back of my mother Gloria and cousins Velma and Della both as a youngster and grown up. The family get togethers Never forgotten. The best Bar b que found in San Antonio. The 3 Amigas were so close and like sisters. I remember their work at the Academy Surplus owned by Della and Al. Velma's brother Dan was a well known Homicide Lt. That I looked up to. He was my hero. I served 32 yrs as law enforcement officer and retired in 2013. Fishing and hunting trips with Velma's brother Manuel Alonzo. They planned and had a going to the military party for me during 1969. Velma was always the one to help share any bad times my mom experienced during my father filing for divorce. I remember the compassion and thought they had drinking a cold cervasa. Velma, Della and my mom are all together now. I offer my condolences to Velma's immediate family.

“ Rest in peace Grandma Velma. We will always cherish your memory. Thank you being a great grandma to my granddaughters. You always had Oreo cookies and candy kisses. You were one of the sharpest ladies, your wit and your memory always impressed me. You always baked fresh apple pies that Alana enjoyed with whipped cream. We will all miss you till we meet again in heaven. I know you're dancing with the angels. Rest in peace beautiful grandma. Say hello to Grandpa Tommy.
