

Velma Molinar

June 10, 2021

Velma, 74, went to be with the Lord on June 10, 2021. She lived in San Antonio. Velma was an energetic, free-spirited person who lived her life to the fullest. She faced life's challenges with grace and devotion. She was a loving mother, sister, grandmother and great-grandmother.

Velma was born November, 1946 in Cotulla, TX but lived most of her life in San Antonio. She attended Catholic school and graduated from Providence High School. Later, she married Jesse Molinar. Her employment included NBC Bank and CTRC. She received various commendations for her work ethic.

She is survived by her daughter, Michelle de la Cruz; siblings, Arthur (Cindy) Veliz, Abel Veliz, Mary Samano (Ismael Bella); her grandchildren, Rebecca, Leslie, Izzy and Keith; great grandchildren, Jimmy, Desiree, Christian and Roman. She is also survived by nieces, nephews and extended family.

Velma was preceded in death by her parents, Arturo and Magdalena Veliz; her husband, Jesse Molinar; her grandson, Carl Knapick; and her daughter, Shannon Rivera.

Memorial Services will be as follows: Rosary will be at 7:00 pm at Mission Park North. The Mass of the Resurrection will be at 10:00 am at St. Paul Catholic at 350 Sutton Dr., San Antonio, 78228. Funeral procession will follow for interment at Fort Sam Houston Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers the family would appreciate donations be made to the Cancer Society.

“ I have many fond memories of my cousin, Velma. We enjoyed the family outings, school activities (especially the dances) and had fun working at our parent's store. She tended to be reserved - with a big heart and a quaint little smile. We take comfort knowing that Velma is now at peace with our Lord Jesus Christ.
