POGGEMOELLER

Velma Poggemoeller passed peacefully in the VITAS Hospice Hospital on Sunday, June 18, 2006 at the glorious age of 90 years and 5 months young. Her life has overflowed with gifts, which she freely shared with all who knew her. From childhood to a week before her death, she shared her musical talents in various choirs and as pianist/organist for friends and church families in Missouri, Leon Springs, TX. and in New Forest Estates Retirement Community where she joyfully lived her last 5 years. Velma was a teacher her entire life. Whether teaching in a 2-room school house in Missouri, or leading girl scouts or raising, children, grandchildren and many others who walked through her door, she taught respect for others, a desire to do our best, and fiscal responsibility. Accomplished with needle and thread, she shared her sewing abilities by outfitting her family in clothes and Christmas fun, and by creating beautiful handcrafted gifts, which she sold to individuals and at craft shows. Her beautiful items have been shared throughout the World via customers these past 30 years. Velma loved to fish, to travel, to be surrounded by nature and beautiful flowers; and she loved her family and friends. Her greatest gift, was loving each of us for who she saw us to be. She gave her life to her family and friends without reservation. She is much loved by those of us whose lives she graced. A service of celebration for her life will be held at the Leon Springs Presbyterian Church, 10:00 a. m. Thursday, June 22, 2006, with interment to follow at Mission Burial Park North Cemetery. Memorials can be made to the Leon Springs Presbyterian Church. You may sign the on-line guest book at www.missionparks.com under the obituary section.
