Werth

Vern J. Werth, born April 21, 1933, passed away on May 17, 2009 in Boerne, Texas. He is preceded in death by his beloved wife Winifred Werth, parents Celestine and Anna Werth and brother Delmer. He is survived by brothers Robert Werth of Berthoud Colorado, Larry Werth of Longmont, Colorado, sister Ethel Swigert of Arvada, Colorado, step-daughter Pat Stowell and her husband, Russ of San Antonio, grandson David Stowell of Littleton, Colorado, grandson Chris Stowell and his wife Anna and great-grandson Scott of Dallas, Texas.

After high school in Longmont, Colorado he served in the U.S Navy on board the U.S.S. Oriskany during the Korean Conflict, receiving several decorations. Upon leaving the service, he returned to Colorado where he established himself as a talented carpenter and supervisor of home building crews. His interests were varied and he eventually became a self-employed architectural-structural draftsman. His work career culminated as a real estate agent. His primary interests were woodworking, tinkering with auto repair projects, and collecting guns. He was a proud member of the National Rifle Association. The family expresses their deep gratitude to Town & Country Manor Skilled Nursing Care of Boerne, Texas and Odyssey Hospice Care for their dedicated and loving care. A special thank you is conveyed to Catholic Chaplain Albert Salinas for his sensitive and committed service to Vern and family in his final

Visitation will begin Thursday, May 21, 2009 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North at 6:00 PM and will continue until 7:30 PM. The Graveside Funeral Service will be held May 22, 2009 at Mission Burial Park North at 10:30 AM with Navy Military Honors.
