“ Wonderful, sweet, loving, handsome guy. When his hair turned gray his blue eyes got even more beautiful. He was the first grandchild in our Garner family, with nine more of us to come. We all had a wonderful time growing up together, precious memories. I love you Vernon. Rest In Peace. Donna Garner Preston

“ Young and Killough family,

I spent many a day in your house growing up and had a lot of fun while there. You guys are a very special part of my life as a kid and you all helped shape me into the person I am today.

I recall how mild mannered Vernon was even when confronted with our antics. There are a couple of memories that really stand out to me from that time. Rolling around in the back of Vernon's seatless (G-Force) van as he would drive us around was non-stop laughter. I can only image what he was thinking and I'm surprised he never pulled over to tell us to stop. I also recall eating over at your house one night when Vernon was making hamburgers. Those were the best burgers I had ever tasted. I don't know if it's because I was particularly hungry but man they were good. To this day I still try to find the right combination of salt and pepper to replicate that taste. I'm sure Vernon is happy to be with your mom, the love of his life, again.

Anyway, I'm deeply sorry for your loss. Your forever friend,

“ I have so many life long wonderful memories of my cousin Vernon. He was also like a big brother to me. We shared so many good times when Uncle Melvin and Aunt Alma would come to visit us in Uvalde. My husband Tommy also enjoyed working with Vernon at Kelly Air Force Base. Vernon was a kind and goodhearted person and he will be greatly missed. Sincerely, Barbara and Tommy Morgan

“ I first met Vernon at age 5, our birthdays were two months apart. He became my best friend, my cousin and my "brother." He was the son of my new Aunt Alma who married my beloved Uncle John Melvin O'Neill. He has been a part of my life for over 80 years. We grew up loving each other and stayed in contact as much as possible. I will always miss him and love him.

My love to you and your family through this time of grief.
