

Victor Orlando Chapa

March 14, 1946 - November 28, 2024

Víctor Orlando Chapa

Victor Orlando Chapa was born on March 14th, 1946, and was called to rest on November 28th, 2024, after living a full blessed life. Victor will always be remembered as a loving husband, father, father-in-law, grandfather, brother and uncle who passionately loved his family dearly. He was a tender and kindhearted man who on the exterior seemed harsh but for those who knew beyond the stern exterior found, laughter, smiles and bear hugs. Papo (as he was known by many) was loved not only by his family but also by many lifelong friends. He had the wonderful ability to meet people and make them feel accepted and relaxed, leaving a strong impression on them. His life's chosen vocation was as a dedicated Union Carpenter for over 30 years, being involved in the construction of many commercial buildings across San Antonio. He was an avid sports enthusiast playing soccer, baseball and softball and later in life was an involved Grandfather attending all his grandchildren's sporting events. Victor is preceded in death by his Father and Mother (Jose and Maria Victoria Chapa), his sister Hilda Toscano and his brother Jose A. Chapa. He leaves behind his wife of 60 years, Stella Elaine Chapa, daughter Deborah Azar (husband Phillip Azar), daughter Monica Hernandez (husband Raymond Hernandez), grandchildren Erin Azar, Alec Azar, Monique Azar, Danielle Azar, Ray Hernandez, Christian Hernandez, Isla Hernandez, and Rica Hernandez, sisters Virginia Castillo and Blanca Chapa and many nieces and nephews. His legacy will live on through those who remain here to tell Papo stories and keep his memory alive. He will be missed and loved always.
