Condolences to all our San Antonio Mesa cousins from your country bumpkin Mesa's from Mason. As children our parents got us together for short visits. I'm sorry we didn't keep in touch as we married and had our own children. Now as adults, we realize we missed a lot with our Tia Victorina and with all you cousins. Our memories of Tia are of a sweet gentle lady who was always ready to feed us and make us feel welcome. May she rest in peace with Tio Leno and I hope they're having their own picnic in heaven. Bless y'all!- Filomena Phyliss Mesa Velez
