

Vincent A. Granato

June 29, 1991 - December 14, 2022

A loving husband, father, son, brother and friend, Vincent A. Granato passed away December 14, 2022. Vincent was born on June 29, 1991 in Ft. Walton Beach, Florida to Ernest A. Granato Jr. and Tonya Hernandez. He is survived by his loving wife of 13 years Frances Granato; daughters Selene Star Granato, Evelyne Rose Granato, Winter Bell Granato and his son Xander Gray Granato; father Ernest A. Granato Jr. ;mothers Tonya Hernandez, Patricia Hernandez and Monica Granato; brothers Joshua A. Granato, Nathan A. Granato, Travis Reed Thomas and his grandmother Elvira Romo.

Vincent loved his wife and children immensely, he was known for being intuitive, sensitive, funny, and clever with his puns and rebuttals. He had a passion for gaming and music particularly 80's metal and rock. He enjoyed playing guitar and collecting Pops. He enjoyed the quality time he had with his wife watching live rock music and always loved playing with his babies any chance he got.

Vincent was a hard-working man, he served in the U.S Army Infantry Airborne and served a tour in Afghanistan. He also obtained his CDL license where he graduated top of his class and worked as a long-distance truck driver.

Visitation will be held Friday December 23, 2022, from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.
