

Vincent G Macias

October 8, 1975 - June 3, 2019

Vincent Gabriel Macias was born October 08, 1975 in San Antonio, Texas. God called him home June 03, 2019 to join his band. Vincent was surrounded by his family and friends. After high school he started out as a prep cook going on to become a chef in restaurants from San Antonio to Austin. He followed both his older brothers, Jesse and Ignacio into music but doing his own thing, (Ska and Reggae). They were all into music. He formed two bands: The Echo Squad and The RiverCity Allstars. The bands performed in San Antonio, Austin, Houston, Corpus Christi, and toured in California. Music and friendship were the main things in his life. There isn't anything he wouldn't do for either one. He lived and breathed both of them. We were talking one day and he told me how so many people came to visit him in the hospital, telling him how much he influenced their lives and how they came back to thank him. It was unbelievable. Vincent is being celebrated by his parents, Jesus C. and Mama Angie, his brother, Jesus M. (Senaída), and Ignacio of Austin, TX, Thomas Axel (Lena Love) of Houston, TX, sisters, Elizabeth Cardona Rodriguez (Ronnie), Sandy Mc Kinney (Rob Day), Overland Park, KS, his nieces, Jessica Garcia (Ricardo) and Catarina Macias, great nephews, Clint Lee Casas and Robert Baltazar Jr. He is also survived by his aunts: Sofia M. Roberts (Ron), Tampa, Fl., Antonia M. Vasquez (Marcelino), Carlota M. Flores (Frank), Bernadine Wolfe Martinez and Natalia M. Garza (Thomas) Castroville, TX, Great-Aunt Romana Wolfe Galvan (Abel), Great-Uncles Pedro Wolfe and Conrado Wolfe (Rosa), Oregon. Also surviving Vincent are his fur babies: Kahn, Una, Jango and Butch.
