

Viola Camero

April 12, 1933 - July 1, 2025

In Loving Memory of Viola V. Camero

Viola V. Camero, a beloved soul whose warmth and faith touched countless lives, passed into the arms of the Lord on July 1, 2025, in San Antonio, Texas, at the age of 92. Born on April 12, 1933, in Harlingen, Texas, to Cecilio Vela and Delfina Zuniga, Viola's life was a beautiful reflection of love, devotion, and family.

For 49 cherished years, Viola shared a devoted marriage with her beloved husband, Ernesto M. Camero Sr., who predeceased her. A treasured sister, wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, Viola's heart was a haven for all who knew her. She is survived by her two children, Ernesto Camero Jr. and his wife, Lucinda S. Camero, and Gloria Camero and her husband, Willmore Baylor Jr.; her sisters, Maria Vela and Elva Revilla; as well as a dozen adoring grandchildren, numerous great-grandchildren, and a wide circle of nieces and nephews who will forever carry her love. Viola was predeceased by her dear husband, Ernesto M. Camero Sr.; her little brother, Gerardo Rios, who gave his life during the Vietnam War; her grandson, Willmore Baylor III; and dear family members Santos Garza, Jesus Vela, and Juanita Cruz.

Viola's life was anchored by her deep faith in God, which guided her every step. Her love for the Lord shone through in her unwavering dedication to her family, whom she nurtured with boundless care. A gifted cook, she filled her home with the comforting aromas of her kitchen, where every dish was a labor of love. Viola also found joy in tending to the birds, delighting in their songs and ensuring they were cared for, a reflection of her gentle, nurturing spirit.

Visitation will be Monday, July 7th, 2025 from 5pm to 8pm at Mission Park Funeral Chapel South, 1700 SE Military Dr. San Antonio TX 78214. A celebration of Viola's life will be held on July 8th, at 10am at Mission Park Funeral Chapel South. Burial to follow at San Jose Burial Park. The reception to continue at 610 Fabulous Dr. San Antonio, TX 78216. Where family and friends are invited to gather, share memories.
