Viola Garcia Garza

May 16, 1946-December 2, 2021

Viola Garcia Garza, 75, made her final journey to be with the Lord on December 2, 2021. She was a proud graduate of Harlandale High School and lived on the South Side of San Antonio all her life. She leaves behind a loving mother Narcedalia and a younger brother Ricardo, as well as numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and nephews who loved her very much. Viola is preceded in death by her father Rosendo and her youngest brother Ramiro Sr. She loved to travel, whether it was to Yorktown TX, or San Francisco CA. She loved hugs, to laugh loud and The Beatles. She was a big fan of the dinner and movie date with Toby, taking lots of pictures and sitting with and holding her kitty's close. She will be loved always. Her loss leaves an immeasurable hole in our lives. We all look forward to seeing her in our memories and our dreams.

Family and friends may come to celebrate her life at Brookehill Funeral Home in San Antonio, TX on Thursday December 16th at 6pm for her rosary. Mass to follow at Lady of the Angels church Friday December 17th at 10:00am.
