Virginia “Gini” Powell Barr

August 24, 1939 – March 5, 2026

San Antonio, Texas

Virginia “Gini” Powell Barr joined her beloved husband, Murray Dean Barr, in the welcoming arms of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on March 5, 2026, in San Antonio, Texas.

Gini was born on August 24, 1939, in Dallas, Texas, to Roy B. Powell and Eunice F. (Adams) Powell. She was raised surrounded by a close-knit and loving extended family of grandparents, aunts, and uncles who were deeply involved in her upbringing.

She graduated from Sunset High School in Dallas and moved to San Antonio, where she met Murray. They married in 1958 and were married for 62 years, until Murray’s passing in 2020.

After raising her sons, Gini returned to college and earned her degree in Social Work from Southwest Texas State University, now known as Texas State University. She later served the State of Texas through her work in Adult Protective Services, where she dedicated herself to helping vulnerable adults in need of care and protection.

Gini was known for her generous spirit and thoughtful nature. She delighted in giving gifts, baking birthday cakes for family and friends, and spending time with loved ones at Wimberley Trade Days. She also enjoyed traveling and creating lasting memories with her family. A faithful member of her church community, she treasured the friendships she formed there and found great joy in singing in the church choir.

Gini's eternal legacy will be her deep and abiding faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Her relationship with Christ paved the way for her husband and sons to follow Him, and that spiritual heritage continues in the lives of her grandchildren who also call Christ Lord.

Mrs. Barr was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Murray Barr. She is survived by her sons, Mark Barr (Marcia) and Scott Barr (Sherolene); her grandchildren, Lauren Ayala (Miguel), Taylor Dean Barr, Hallie Simmons (Markell), Samuel Joseph Barr, and Sawyer Dodd Barr; and her great-granddaughter, Talia James Simmons.

“ Mark & Scott & Families,

It was with heavy heart that I heard of your Mother's passing. We had not seen one another for many years but my memories of spending time with both Gini & Murray are still clear and sharp. They were a great couple and so giving. Such a beautiful lady who loved her family unconditionally. I know that the family will miss that smile, but please be comforted by the knowledge that she is not gone but merely has changed her address to join Murray in the everlasting presence of our Lord & Savior Jesus Christ.

God bless & keep you!
